OFF FOR THE ORPHANAGE PARTIALLY SUPPORTED BY SEDALIANS—The oldest smiling and the youngest a bit fearful six of the 10 orphaned children from one family were taken by the Loyal Order of the Moose at Moosheart, Ill. (Sedalia's Moose Lodge contributes to Moosheart). Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. LaRoche, both died of natural causes in the past year. Omer Landry, the children's uncle (left) adopted the youngest child, Kathleen, 2, (not shown) and accompanied the group to Moosheart. Three older brothers now in high school are staying with Claremont friends. Children waving goodbye to Vernon Whitcomb (right), local Moose governor, are (left to right): front—Charles 7; Dorothy 10; and Annette, 5. Rear—Robert 12, Louis, 13, and Arthur, 11. (AP WIREPHOTO)

M'Grath Denies Justice Dept. 'Sat' On Case

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former Attorney General J. Howard McGrath today denied that anyone in the Justice Department tried to "sit on" St. Louis tax scandal cases in 1951.

McGrath told house investigators the department "did all we could to cooperate" with U. S. Judge George H. Moore in carrying on a special grand jury probe.

"There was no reason in the world for anyone in the Department of Justice to take an interest in any St. Louis tax cases," he declared.

"Missouri is the home state of the President and St. Louis is the home city of the secretary of the treasury but nobody ever spoke to me about any case in St. Louis . . . and if anyone says someone tried to get the department to sit on St. Louis tax cases, it just isn't so."

McGrath testified before a judicial subcommittee which is investigating the Justice Department. Judge Moore sent the group a sworn statement last month which said in effect that the judge felt the Justice Department, from McGrath on down, dragged its feet on the grand jury inquiry.

Judge Moore related that there was delay in getting Justice Department clearance for the U. S. district attorney, the late Drake Watson, to work with the grand jury.

He said he finally telephoned McGrath and that the then attorney general told him that he would prefer that tax cases go through "regular channels" that is be presented to a grand jury only after going through the Treasury and Justice Departments in Washington.

Judge Moore made it clear, too, that he believed Ellis N. Slack, a Justice Department official who was sent to St. Louis, was instrumental in getting the grand jury to return a preliminary report which one juror later characterized as a "whitewash." This report said no wrongdoing had been found.

The judge ordered a further investigation and the grand jury eventually returned a number of indictments, one of them against James P. Finnegan, district collector and close friend of President Truman.

Finnegan was convicted of misconduct in office. His case is on appeal.

McGrath said he regarded Slack as "one of the finest men in the government from the standpoint of integrity and ability," and is convinced that Slack had nothing to do with the grand jury report that drew the judge's ire.

General For T-H Changes

Ike Tells AF of L He Wants 'Realistic' Amendments But Not Full Repeal

NEW YORK (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower told the American Federation of Labor today that he favored "realistic" amendments to the Taft-Hartley law, but did not favor its repeal.

"I will not support any amendments which weaken the rights of working men and women," he said in an address prepared for delivery before the AFL annual convention here.

The GOP presidential nominee said he knew that the law as it stood "might be used to break unions."

"That must be changed," he said. "America wants no law licensing union-busting. Neither do I."

Follows Truman's Address

Eisenhower's speech followed by a day a message to the convention by President Truman in which Truman said Republicans planned to "make the Taft-Hartley law even more oppressive and unfair" to labor.

Gov. Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic presidential nominee, has advocated repeal of the act and writing a new law.

The convention, which will hear Stevenson Monday, is expected to endorse him, thus departing from a long held tradition not to endorse a presidential candidate.

The GOP candidate said he believed that the AFL's own executive council had stated that it was prepared to take what it called a realistic view of amendments to the Taft-Hartley law.

"And that is my position too," he said. "I give it to you simply and clearly. I am in favor, not of repealing, but of amending the law."

Eisenhower said some of the principles he thought it was important to continue in the law were:

"The encouragement of collective bargaining, the right to strike, an advance notice before a strike is called; a requirement that both unions and employers live up to their contracts; the assurance that union members get a regular report on their union's finances."

Eisenhower told the 800 delegates "you know me well enough to know that I have not come to you for any special favor."

Not Akin to Endorsement

"I have not come to bid or compete for your endorsement," he said.

"My views toward labor will be the same as they long have been, regardless of the action taken by the AFL at this convention in the matter of endorsing a presidential candidate."

"My guide in this vital matter, as in others, will always remain the same:

"What is good for America—all America."

Eisenhower said that "since patriotic American union leaders must swear that they are not Communists, then the employers with whom they deal should be subject to the same requirement."

"I would not mind, every morning, swearing an oath of loyalty to the United States of America," the general declared. "I would be proud every night to give my sworn oath that I am not a Communist."

"But I would resent doing this and I would resent it bitterly, if I were singled out to do it because I happened to be a veteran, or if I were a labor union official."

In reference to his Democratic rival for the presidency, Eisenhower declared:

"My opponent made plain on labor day that he wanted power, as president, to compel arbitration. That is exactly what I am against."

Leading Ace Gets Eighth MIG Today

Allies Hammer Red Targets Near Battle Front

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—America's leading jet ace in Korea today shot down his eighth Russian-made MIG-15 as Allied fighter-bombers hammered red targets from the battle front to near the Manchurian border.

The U. S. Fifth Air Force said Maj. Frederick C. Blesse, who has flown more than 250 combat missions in Korea, scored his eighth kill in a fight between four Sabre jets and nine MIGs near Sakchu in Northwest Korea.

The victory raised the Allied bag of MIGs in September to 47—three more than the previous monthly high of 44 in April.

U. S. Shooting Star jets swarmed over a Communist storage area and placed gold mine south of Kowon near the East Coast.

Fighter-bombers attacked a rail line southeast of Anju in North Korea and pilots reported the rail bed was cratered in six places.

Other fighter planes attacked Communist front line positions in the vicinity of Capitol Hill and Finger Ridge on the Central Front.

The hard air blows against the Reds followed destructive raids against Communist supply vehicles last night by U. S. light bombers.

Fifth Air Force headquarters confirmed the pending claim of one MIG destroyed in an Aug. 5 air battle. This raised the confirmed total for the Korean War to 419 MIGs destroyed, 70 probably destroyed and 607 damaged.

Total Red planes of all types reported destroyed and 692 damaged. B26 light bombers reported destroying 123 Communist vehicles on supply roads in North Korea.

Ground fighting along the 155-mile battlefront continued light. U. S. Eighth Army headquarters reported only small Communist probes and scattered patrol clashes.

Five From Missouri

Dorothy Forest, 37, of St. Louis, was arrested in her office at St. Louis.

James Frederick Forest, 42, also of St. Louis, was picked up at his home in St. Louis.

Marcus Alphonse Murphy, 44, arrested at his home on a farm near Charleston, Mo.

William Sentner, 45, of St. Louis, arrested at a Rock Island hotel.

James Forest was identified as state chairman of the Communist Party of Missouri and a member of the state board of the party.

The FBI said Dorothy Forest, wife of James, became organizational secretary of the Hollywood section of the Communist Party while her husband was in the army, and moved from Los Angeles to St. Louis in 1948.

Sentner, it said, has been identified with Communist Party activities in St. Louis since the early 1930's and has held numerous party posts, including membership on the state board.

Murphy also was described as long active in Communist Party activities, and onetime director of the now defunct Joseph Weydemeyer School of Social Sciences in St. Louis.

Murphy Was Candidate

In 1940, Murphy was the Communist Party candidate for lieutenant governor of Missouri. He also was once the party's candidate for president of the St. Louis Board of Aldermen.

The announcement said each arrest was made on the basis of a warrant issued by a U. S. Commissioner or a federal judge on a complaint filed by a special agent of the FBI. Filing of the complaints was authorized by the attorney general.

Those arrested were charged with violating the Smith Act. This is the law under which top leaders of the party were brought to trial in New York, and under which "second team" leaders have been accused in various parts of the country.

The Smith Act provides a maximum penalty, upon conviction, of 10 years in prison and a fine of $10,000.

Cooties and Lady Bugs Have State Sessions Here This Saturday

The Military Order of Cooties, honor degree of Veterans of Foreign Wars, will hold its first grand council of administration meeting of the year in Sedalia Saturday night.

Headquarters will be at the Bothwell Hotel.

The program will start with a banquet at 7 p. m. at St. Patrick's School Hall, the meeting following at the Bothwell Hotel.

Tentative plans have been made for a parade, if the weather permits.

The Military Order of Lady Bugs will hold its royal council of administration meeting at St. Patrick's School Hall immediately after the banquet.

Pirates Beat Brooklyn

BROOKLYN (AP)—George Metkovich lashed two home runs and batted in three runs to give the Pittsburgh Pirates a 4-1 victory over Brooklyn that cut the Dodgers' first place lead over the triumphant New York Giants to three games today.

Howie Pollet, veteran southpaw, stopped the Brooks with six hits but needed ninth inning assistance from right-hander Murry Dickson. The Giants beat Chicago, 2-0.

18 Reds Arrested In Nation

Some Missourians Taken In Custody By Federal Agents In Big Round-up

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Justice Department announced today the arrest of 18 Midwest and West Coast Communist Party leaders on charges of conspiring to advocate overthrow of the government by force and violence.

Attorney General McGranery and FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said those arrested included the leaders of the party in Missouri, Washington state and Michigan.

Arrests were made in St. Louis, Rock Island, Ill., Charleston, Mo., Seattle, Detroit, Los Angeles, Portland and Eugene, Ore., Chicago and Minneapolis.

All the arrests were made on warrants issued by U. S. commissioners and federal judges on complaint of FBI agents. The attorney general authorized the filing of the complaints.

Mrs. Winter Included

Among those arrested was Helen Mary Winter, 44, wife of Carl Winter, one of the 11 top Communist leaders convicted in New York in 1949.

Mrs. Winter, picked up in Detroit, has been Michigan state organizational secretary of the party.

The Justice Department announcement described Mrs. Winter as presently active with the "Committee for Amnesty for Smith Act Victims."

All those arrested today, like many party leaders seized earlier, are charged with violating the Smith Act which forbids conspiring to advocate the overthrow of the government by force and violence.

Those taken into custody today include:

MKT Shops Not Closing, President Announces Today

No Workers Told to Transfer; Inquiry On Use of Shop Facilities by Heavy Industry Is Received and Considered

Rumors regarding the Missouri-Kansas-Texas railroad passenger shops in Sedalia, and its employees, which circulated here the past few weeks, apparently are unfounded according to a statement given Wednesday by R. V. Fraser, president of the M-K-T. The statement was released to the Sedalia Democrat-Capital by M. R. Craig, assistant to the president.

Mr. Fraser said, "The Katy has no plans to move or dispose of its passenger car shops in Sedalia. There have been some inquiries concerning Katy property at Sedalia by large out-state interests who are seeking to locate a manufacturing industry in Missouri that would involve heavy employment. These inquiries are typical of canvasses made by large national companies who are seeking locations in the Southwest."

"The Katy Industrial Department, and the Chamber of Commerce of Sedalia, have, over a long period, worked together with the idea of interesting industry in the local community, and the latest inquiry is merely a further effort on the part of the Katy to cooperate fully in bringing new industry to Sedalia."

Continuing, Mr. Fraser said, "We have no intention of moving the shop facilities and if any successful effort is made to interest outside industries in Katy property as such, then and only then will the management feel it necessary to review the whole question of location of shop facilities."

"The Katy is anxious to promote new industrial locations along its line in Missouri, and, with the continuing demand for Southwest sites for national industries, there is much hope that Missouri will come in for its share of this development," President Fraser concluded.

Mr. Cring, when asked about rumors employees had been notified they had to leave Sedalia for other Katy points or seek other employment, stated, "There is nothing to that. Nobody has been told to seek other employment, or take a transfer."

Mr. Cring said the visit of H. M. Warden, vice-president and general manager of Dallas, Tex., and T. H. Evans, chief mechanical officer, from Parsons, Kan., last week was merely a routine inspection trip.

Harry Brunkhorst, superintendent of the local shops, said work at the local shops is continuing as usual.

Hershey Says Draft Changes Must Be Made

WASHINGTON (AP)—Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey expressed the opinion today that changes must be made in Selective Service regulations next year if the armed forces are to get the men they need.

Hershey, director of Selective Service, told reporters he did not know what specific changes should be made but said he did not think they would require congressional action. No proposed legislation is being drafted by his agency, he added.

Hershey said he regarded as too optimistic the estimate of some government manpower statisticians that there would be a pool of 500,000 draftable men next July 1.

But he added that even if that turns out to be true more men will be needed under current policies.

He said that probably the best way to get additional draft-eligible manpower is to "fight and fight hard to get 'em out of the 4-F."

On Aug. 1 this year there were 1,484,051 4-F's. Physical standards are set by the armed services. Hershey indicated clearly that he thinks men are being rejected on physical grounds that could be used saying:

"In time of general mobilization I think the armed forces ought to tell their induction stations that the rejection rate cannot exceed 20 percent."

Up to April 30 this year rejections for physical, mental and moral reasons were running around 45 per cent, according to statistics. Hershey presented to a House committee.

MPS Asks Authority For 136-Mile Pipe Line In Missouri

WASHINGTON (AP)—Authority to construct a 136-mile pipe line system in Missouri at an estimated cost of $5,080,845 is sought by the Missouri Public Service Co., Warrensburg, Mo., in an application filed with the Power Commission.

The company also asked the FPC to order Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Co., Kansas City, to supply it with natural gas so it may supply these communities for the first time.

Glasgow, Salisbury, Keytesville, Dalton, Brunswick, Marceline, Buckline, Brookfield, LaCade, Meadville, Wheeling, Chillicothe, Chula, Utica and Trenton.

Sanitation Dept. Outlines Precautions Against Polio

Although Sedalia and the immediate community have been very fortunate in that few cases of polio have been reported, the city sanitation department feels that steps should be taken to prevent any outbreak of the disease at this late date.

These men feel that Sedalia has an advantage with a modern sewage system and a sanitary garbage collection system, but they also feel that the following precautions should be taken:

1. Keep garbage in covered containers with tight lids.

2. Keep outside toilets cleaned and spray them with lime.

3. Keep outside toilets, which are connected with the sewage system, flushed at least twice a day with five gallons of water. Also keep a top, with a fly cover, shut.

4. Keep all cans and rubbish cleaned up and hauled to the city disposal grounds.

5. Keep weeds cut. The officials urge that all property owners make a special effort to cut weeds within the next two weeks.

6. Though consideration has been given to have the city spray the surrounding area, the residents may also spray around their garbage and trash areas.

The officials believe with cooperation on these steps the danger of a polio epidemic can be cut to a minimum.

Typhoon Lashes Wake Isle

Only Four Buildings Are Left Standing; Hurry to Remove 700 to Honolulu

By ROY ESSOYAN

HONOLULU (AP)—Trees and roofs flew through the air like straws but children sang bravely as they marched to concrete bunkers on typhoon-lashed Wake Island yesterday.

Mothers comforted their children in underground shelters while water sloshed around their feet. Outside every building except four on the flat little atoll was being smashed to bits by raging winds and waves.

Eyewitnesses told stories like these today from Wake and Kwajalein by radio as rescue operations got into full swing to bring some 700 inhabitants to Honolulu.

A C-97 Stratocruiser left the storm-battered atoll with 80 evacuees. Some 600 more will follow as fast as planes can land and load up.

Injured to Kwajalein

Four injured were flown to Kwajalein Island, 700 miles to the south, by a PBM Martin Mariner yesterday.

Radio reports continued to trickle in with details of the terrible destruction wrought by heavy seas and wind greater than 160-miles an hour.

Preliminary estimates placed the damage at 10 million dollars.

Helen Hawk, a reporter for the weekly magazine Transpacifican, said, "Damage was much worse than bombs could inflict. The Hotel, barracks, everything on the ground except concrete radio buildings and the terminal was destroyed. The 200-foot radio tower was blown right down."

Miss Hawk, of Chicago, was caught just before the typhoon hit in all its fury. Her Military Air Transport Service plane from Honolulu, en route to Tokyo, landed in a cross wind, blowing two tires.

Roofs And Trees 'Fly'

Maynard Joseph Fontaine, a Coast Guard technician evacuated to Kwajalein, said he saw "roofs flying" from the air like straws.

Sgt. Thomas Albert Barker, 24, an Air Force technician, accompanied the four injured men to Kwajalein in the PBM Mariner.

Barker declared there was "no panic, no hysteria among the women and children. Everybody behaved wonderfully."

The children, he said, sang songs as they marched from their homes to the concrete blockhouses.

"The families stayed in the flooded blockhouses more than eight hours before venturing out at about 6 p. m.," he said. They wanted to take stock of their belongings, but they quickly went back to the blockhouses."

Two navigators of the Flying Tigers, who suffered bad body bruises, were knocked unconscious. They were F. W. Moore of Denver and Blair Johnson of Los Angeles.

Man 'Knocked Cold'

A Quonset hut blew down on them," Barker said. "Moore started running. He didn't know where he was going. Miraculously he ended up at the dispensary."

Johnson dashed out of the Quonset hut and when he woke up an hour later he was holding onto a tree. He had been knocked cold."

Barker and Fontaine relayed their reports through amateur radio operators. Airman Les Lucas, Crooksville, O., sent the message from Kwajalein to Marine Cpl. Dave Gee of Walla Walla, Wash., stationed at Pearl Harbor.

Mothers and children huddled in the concrete blockhouses for hours, singing while the fierce winds and torrential rains pounded the tiny flat atoll, which rises only 15 feet above sea level.

Water sloshed three feet deep in the concrete structures at the peak of the storm.

First planes from the outside to reach Wake took food, drinking water and medicine from Honolulu's Hickam Field and Kwajalein. Crews of the mercy planes set up cots and tents and began feeding the island's residents.

Eyewitness Tells Of Wake Evacuation

(Editors Note: Stan Carter, an AP war correspondent in Korea, flew to Wake from Tokyo aboard a military rescue plane. Honolulu says his story is the first press copy received there from Wake.)

By STAN CARTER

WAKE ISLAND (AP)—Children clutching toys and dolls and young wives with tears in their eyes climbed into rescue planes today and left typhoon-lashed Wake for Honolulu.

They were the first of 350 persons evacuated today. More, including most of the fathers and husbands, will leave tomorrow.

They, and others to follow, take with them memories of standing knee deep in water in underground concrete shelters—of crawling on hands and knees in search of their families—of thinking that only the persons huddled in the same shelters with them were alive—that everyone else among the 750 on this tiny island had been killed by the sledgehammer blows of raging wind, rain and waves.

They leave a Wake covered with wreckage. There has been no official estimate of property damage. (Please turn to Page 4, Column 3)

Angel Gabriel Only Rival
Of Armstrong as Trumpeteer

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Hepeats today agree that Louis Armstrong has only one rival as a trumpet player—and he's out of this world. He's an angel named Gabriel, and some Armstrong fans say: "If Satchmo can take his horn with him when he goes, he'll blow some notes even old Gabe never heard."

At 52 "Satchmo"—a contraction of satchel mouth—shows no interest in making that long vertical journey just to join Gabriel in a jam session. He is a living symbol of the whole jazz age, and he's still having the time of his life. The bugle he started with long ago has turned into a golden horn—the 15 cents he got for his first night's playing has been followed by many a $15,000 week. And he enjoyed his old honky-tonk days as much as his later concerts in famous Carnegie Hall. Probably even more.

"I got peace of mind," he said. "I'm able to do my work, get my pay, and eat—and all I want to do is keep on going."

"I been blowing that horn 39 years and I never looked back once. You can live on this earth without putting all the time."

"I bet I made more than a million dollars, but I don't know. I just blow that horn and let my manager count the money. When a man's in love, what else can he want?"

Louie, who is called "Pops," is in love with what he is doing, and his remark about making a million dollars is the understatement of the year. Besides his band income, Armstrong figures he has made some 2,500 recordings.

"More than any musician alive," wrapping a towel around his whale—rivaling abdomen—he weighs nearly one-eighth of a ton—he sat down in his theater dressing room and recalled how on a skinny boy of 13 he blew chow call on his bugle in a Negro waiters home in New Orleans.

"Sometimes, just for fun, I'd hold off a few minutes," he said, "and the kids'd holler, 'Come on, satchel mouth, blow that horn. We want to scarf.' They meant they were hungry."

At 15 he picked up a trumpet in a honky-tonk band, and he never really has put it down. In those days when a jazz artist really got in the groove, he started "moppin' the brow," and the more handkerchiefs he had to mop the perspiration with the more prosperous he was.

Today Satchmo is the landy-man's best friend—he uses 60 to 70 handkerchiefs on a busy day, and he never has to mop his brow with the same one twice in a row. To him that is the great luxury of his success.

Stalin Grips
New Power
In Far East

By JONH M. IGTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Generalissimo Stalin has consolidated Russia's power position in the Far East, apparently as a counter to American power, through the agreements reached in the Moscow talks with Red Chinese leaders.

This is the outstanding single accomplishment of the conference which ended two days ago after a month of meetings between Chinese Premier Chou En-lai and top Soviet officials. But American officials are certain it is not by any means the only important result. Speculation is that wrapped up in the secrecy behind the Iron Curtain are vital decisions bearing on the future of war—or peace—in Asia and on America's own Far Eastern power position anchored in Japan.

What the official announcement of the conference showed, authorities here asserted, was simply that Russia had succeeded in backing out of a treaty commitment to withdraw from the Manchurian naval base of Port Arthur. Until they had maneuvered this, the Soviets were under legal and moral Satchmo said a band, like an army, travels on its stomach. "Bad stomachs and not enough sleep have ruined more good bands than bad music," he said. His solicitude for his own vast stomach has a maternal quality, and he can fall asleep "even with the dentist drilling on my teeth."

Armstrong says there are only two things that make a fine musician—ability and living.

"We can all take the book and go 'do-re-mi,'" he said, "but you got to find the other notes for yourself, and that takes time. You got to live. It takes years."

"The higher I go on that trumpet the lower I think, so's I won't split a high note. I look up with my eyes, but I think low."

Satchmo soon is leaving for his fifth tour of Europe, where, if anything, he is even more popular than in his homeland. On a previous visit to Rome Satchmo, who is a Baptist, had an audience with the Pope while wearing his favorite good luck charm around his neck—a gold six-pointed star, a Jewish emblem.

Satchmo demanded, when friends joked about it afterward, "The Pope didn't mind."

Satchmo is proud of his audience with the Pope, and of one other thing: "I got credit on Broadway."

compulsion, by a 1950 agreement with Red China, to quit Port Arthur this year.

In the cold-blooded terms of power relationships they would have been yielding a major position opposite Japan.

They solved their problem by making a deal with Red China. With one slight exception, in the opinion of government experts here, the terms of this dealer not yet known.

The exception is the published agreement that while remaining in Port Arthur at the officially announced "request" of the Chinese Reds, the Russians will yield control of the important Changchun Railway, which serves the base. A State Department press officer suggested yesterday that even the release of the railway will be more apparent than real because, he said, the Soviets will retain control of its terminals.

The State Department was extremely reserved in initial reaction to the Moscow announcement that the Chinese talks were finished. Officials said facts may be weeks in coming and may take the form of action rather than pronouncements.

But at the time Chou En-lai turned up in Moscow a month ago there was a strong belief here, which exists today, that he went with his hand out and that most likely he sought one of two things, either Russian agreement and diplomatic assistance in bringing an end to the Korean War quickly, or greatly increased Soviet help in arms and equipment for Chinese forces in Korea.

There is some speculation here that the "request" which he made to the Kremlin to keep its troops in Port Arthur may have been the price he paid, or part of it, for getting whatever he did get.

TO MEDITERRANEAN—Donald Decker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Decker, 1516 West Main, will leave Norfolk, Va., in two weeks for a six month cruise in the Mediterranean. His ship, the USS Hank, left port Aug. 28, but due to a wreck while at sea returned to Virginia for repairs. Donald graduated from Smith-Cotton in 1951 and enlisted in the navy last February.

Communists Regime Illness
VIENNA (AP)—"My father suffered a sudden crisis in his kidney ailment. He needed urgent doctor's help," wrote a Sofia worker in Communist controlled Bulgaria to the newspaper "Rabotnitschesko Delo."

"I went to the 20th Poliklinik. The doctor on night duty said he could not come, because there was no ambulance. After I told him how urgent it was, he said it would do no good anyway, because he had no medical instruments. All the instruments were locked up at night."

Billion Spent In Orient
TOKYO (AP)—The U. S. Army has bought nearly one billion dollars worth of goods from nations in the Orient during the past two years, the Japan Procurement Agency reports.

The agency says slightly more than 90 per cent of the $982,026,957 was spent in Japan for a variety of items ranging like a mail-order catalogue.

"The first United Nations flag to fly over Gen. MacArthur's headquarters in Tokyo was turned up by Japanese seamstresses," said an agency spokesman.

Archer Tells
Optimist Club
Of His Sport

Following the noon luncheon of the Sedalia Optimist Club Tuesday, Harry Collins, well known Sedalia archer, was introduced by Bill Hertz, program chairman, as principal speaker.

Mr. Collins is known over the state of Missouri, both as an archer and archivist.

In explaining his reason for becoming interested in the hobby and sport of archery, Mr. Collins said that while he was acting as a scoutmaster in the 20's a scout named Norman Taylor decided to try for the merit badge for archery. As a result, with aid of material salvaged from an old Ford Model T bumper, a bow was made. As the experiment progressed, other scouts became interested, and in the course of a few short years, an Archery Club was in operation.

"The bow and arrow," said the speaker, "has constituted in the past an extremely effective weapon of war, and through the centuries the science of its use was very highly developed. The English had their armies of archers broken down into groups, one of which did the work of artillery in laying down a barrage to pave the way for the advance of foot troops who came in close for the kill."

"The National Archers Association," stated the speaker, "is composed of men of all creeds, professions and walks of life. In the last 15 years, the sport of big game hunting with bow and arrow has developed, and has a good following." At the conclusion of his talk Mr. Collins answered many questions regarding the sport.

Charles Hanna Jr., was guest of his father, Police Chief Neighbors was guest of Jim Ringen.

Long Urges
US Get Air
Bases In Spain

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Long (D-La.) said today this country is "missing a bet" in failing to reach agreement with Spain on establishing bases there to aid in the defense of Europe.

Just back from a 16,000-mile tour of U. S. bases from Greenland to Turkey, Long told reporters that in his opinion the Spanish were not asking too high a price to participate in Western defense plans.

On the contrary, he said, "if it were known how little they are asking and how much benefit they would be to our side, it would be hard to explain why an agreement has not been reached."

Long declined to say what Spain was asking or to reveal the sources of information on which he based his opinion.

He said, however, that some of this country's Western European allies who object to the Franco regime in Spain seemed determined to do all they can to prevent an agreement being reached in negotiations that have been under way for some time.

PARDON MY GUST!

BENEATH that big broad bonnet is the reason for this headline.

It's a four-barreled automatic carburetor—Airpower by name—which has a way of gulping in what the dictionary defines as "a sudden blast of wind" when extra power is needed.

And the way this gorgeous performer can step out as this occurs is something you'll always remember.

For ordinary driving, two barrels are all you need—and two barrels are all that are working. They give you an extra thrifty flow of fuel for round-town cruising.

When extra power is wanted in a hurry—the "reserves" swing into action—feeding extra fuel and extra air in an ever-thrifty mixture, which delivers the greatest horsepower in Buick history.

This is one of many distinctions that endear ROADMASTERS to fine-car owners.

It's a car as rich in finish as it is in power—a car of expansive room—restful silence—level in gait—beautifully responsive to your mood and will.

All persons, men as well as women, of Sedalia or surrounding territory, who are interested in missionary education, are invited to attend the sessions. There is no charge for registration.

Arrangements for the institute have been made under the direction of Mrs. Luther Landis, president of the Sedalia Council of Church Women, and Mrs. Fred Kueck, chairman of the department of missions. Mrs. Ralph Carrel will be the organist.

Wholesale Food Prices In Sharp Decline This Week

NEW YORK (AP)—Wholesale food prices this week posted their sharpest overall decline in nearly three years, according to the Dun & Bradstreet food index.

The index skidded from $6.69 last week to $6.49 this week and was 4.1 per cent below the year-ago level of $6.77. Not since the week of Sept. 20, 1949, when a 13-cent drop was recorded, has the index fallen so rapidly in a seven-day period.

The wholesale prices of one pound each of 31 foods in general use are totaled to arrive at the index. This week's figure compares with the year's high to date of $6.70 reached on Aug. 26 and Sept. 2, and with the 1952 low of $6.31 on April 22.

BSU Secretary Speaks to First Baptists' Men

Tuesday evening the Men's Brotherhood of the First Baptist Church held a most interesting and inspiring meeting at a dinner in the church basement with an attendance of about 40.

Dr. Glenn Yarbrough, Jefferson City, State Baptist Student Union secretary, was the speaker on the topic "Every Man In His Place."

His message was forceful, pointing out the advantages of following through on whatever calling one might be engaged in for advancement, religiously and otherwise, in the channels of business, industry or other pursuit.

Oscar DeWolf, president of the group, presided with Aubrey Case as program chairman. Fellowship singing, led by Carl Yessen, followed Dr. Yarbrough's talk. Carleton L. Kelley, the membership chairman, introduced several new members.

Various projects to be passed on at future meetings were discussed and it was voted to give 12 chairs to the new Baptist Church building at Hughesville.

Kenneth Chastain was elected secretary-treasurer to succeed Earl Edwards, who is leaving for St. Louis, being transferred there on a postoffice assignment.

The dinner was prepared by a committee of church women, including Mrs. Gib Owen, Mrs. Clyde Owen and Mrs. Thomas F. Croxton.

The Earl of Leicester presented Queen Elizabeth with the first wrist watch in 1572.

Holden Fiesta Called Off Due to Polio

Dixie Editors Rate It 50-50 Yet That Solid South Will Remain So

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

NEW YORK (AP)—Dixie editors rate it a 50-50 guess at this point whether the 1952 presidential battle will be a solid South or a split one. The consensus of those taking part in an Associated Press survey is that the bulk of Dixie once more will be safe for the Democrats. But newsmen say that if the selection were held now Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower might be able to storm the Democratic fortress in the South and border states and snatch three or possibly five states from Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson. Texas, Louisiana and Florida are the big question marks. Virginia and Kentucky are lesser ones.

In state after state, even in some of those considered dead sure to go Democratic as usual, editors and correspondents say Eisenhower will receive the biggest vote ever accorded a Republican presidential candidate.

At the moment, the composite opinion of Southern newspapermen is that Stevenson is certain to sweep the presidential election in Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Oklahoma and West Virginia. Those nine states have 88 electoral votes.

Kentucky is considered close but fairly sure to go Democratic. Virginia editors think their state is leaning toward Stevenson by a scant margin as to be highly doubtful. Kentucky has 10 electoral votes, Virginia 12.

Editors are uncertain as to whether Texas, Louisiana and Florida, with 44 electoral votes among them, will remain Democratic or hop over to the Republican camp.

In the south, as in other regions, many editors and correspondents say it is too early to tell now people will vote in November. Many voters, particularly the independents, they say, are waiting to hear what the rival candidates have to say before making up their minds.

But at this stage of the campaign, many Dixie newsmen say a trend is apparent that may bring a record vote for the Republican ticket in November even if it falls short of carrying any states.

If voter sentiment shifts later on, in advance of the election, some newsmen expect it to be in Stevenson's direction. That is the case in Arkansas, for example, and in Florida.

One reason offered are that Stevenson will pick up Southern supporters as he becomes better known while Eisenhower may lose a bit of ground as the first flush of enthusiasm aroused by his early September campaign trip to the South begins to fade a little.

Here's the way things look politically to Southern editors and correspondents.

Texas 24 electoral votes. Texans want a change at the White House, but editors feel the still undecided independent voters will determine whether the state wants to change to Stevenson or Eisenhower. At the moment, it's a toss-up.

Editors say Stevenson's support of the administration stand on tidelands oil sapped some of his strength among state democratic leaders but did not hurt him greatly with the ordinary voters.

Louisiana 10 electoral votes. The consensus of editors is that a majority of Louisiana voters outside of New Orleans voted for Eisenhower if they were marking their ballots today. But the state must be listed as a political question mark rather than as tipping toward the GOP nominee because of the state's biggest unknown factor.

In a city casts one-fourth of the total Louisiana vote and normally turns in a heavy Democratic majority, Louisiana 10 electoral votes.

News editors regard the state as a 50-50 split at this time. But many say they look for a pick-up in Stevenson strength when or if the enthusiasm for Eisenhower's three-city campaign tour of the state subsides and the normal Florida tendency to vote Democratic takes hold.

Virginia 12 electoral votes. Stevenson gets a slight nod at this point from the combined opinion of 39 newspapers and two radio stations. However, they consider the race is so tight that a switch of a few thousand votes could determine the winner.

Kentucky 10 electoral votes. In 42 of 120 Kentucky counties covered by surveys, newspapers and radio stations consider Stevenson running ahead of Eisenhower by a slender margin. So now, their estimates put the Democratic nominee behind the pace Truman set in these same counties four years ago. The A. P. survey produced no estimates for the remainder of the state, which cast two-thirds of the total vote four years ago.

Alabama 11 electoral votes. Eisenhower is expected to cut the usual Democratic edge nearly in half but Alabama editors and political writers still consider the state safe for Stevenson.

Arkansas 8 electoral votes. Arkansas editors look for Eisenhower to draw the largest vote of any Republican presidential nominee in history—but not a big enough one to carry the state.

Mississippi 8 electoral votes. It's Stevenson out front 2 to 1, on the dove sheets of Mississippi editors. But this is another Southern state in which newsmen expect Eisenhower to make the best showing of any Republican since reconstruction days.

North Carolina 14 electoral votes. Stevenson will carry North Carolina, in the opinion of Tar Heel editor.

Yet the consensus from 75 newspapers is that in North Carolina, too, Eisenhower will come up with a much larger vote than a GOP nominee usually receives.

Oklahoma 8 electoral votes. Oklahoma newsmen estimate the voters will go Democratic in November as usual, but in smaller proportions than in 1948. On that basis of a survey touching all 77 counties, the estimates add up to a Stevenson victory by about 55,000 votes. President Truman took

Coal Industry Will Continue Production

WASHINGTON (AP)—John L. Lewis and the anthracite industry reached an interim agreement today to keep producing hard coal after their present contract expires on Oct. 1.

The temporary agreement, to be effective until a complete new contract is negotiated, calls for a boost in the royalty paid by the hard coal mine owners to the United Mine Workers welfare fund from 30 to 50 cents a ton.

Both the union and spokesmen for the anthracite industry said they recognized there was need for a boost in the royalty per ton of hard coal produced in order to finance present benefits paid miners from the fund.

President Lewis of the union told a news conference he considered the temporary agreement a tribute to the wisdom of both sides to keep the anthracite industry producing until a final contract can be negotiated.

The situation remains as it has with regard to the soft coal mines—with the possibility of a strike in some of them Sept. 20 and in others Sept. 30.

Plans were disclosed earlier today for a government order, to be issued tomorrow, that would freeze shipments from many soft coal mines in the north, to provide an emergency stockpile in event of a prolonged strike.

Sacred Heart Teams Split Wins With Smithton High Here

The Sacred Heart girls' and boys' football teams played the Smithton teams Tuesday in a two-game series which saw the Sacred Heart girls lose to the Smithton girls by a score of 5-2 and the Sacred Heart boys win 10-2.

The batteries for the girls' team were: Smithton—Schuessing and Ficken; Sacred Heart—Josephine White and Harriet Smith.

Leading hitters in the boys' game were J. Falls and Long of Sacred Heart, both of whom got homers, and Coffey of Sacred Heart who got three extra base hits.

The batteries for the boys' team were: Sacred Heart—Pat Ryan and Jack Coffey; Smithton—Wacky and O'Neill.

Both Sacred Heart teams will journey to Houstonia Friday.

Two Commemorative Stamps at Postoffice

Two new commemorative stamps have been placed on sale at the Sedalia Postoffice, according to Postmaster Maurice Hogan. One is honoring the woman in the armed services and the other marks the 100th anniversary of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

No Musicians Picnic

The Sedalia Musicians Association, Local No. 22, will not hold the picnic at Knob Noster State Park Sunday, Sept. 21, as planned because of the near epidemic state of polio. L. C. Judd is president of the association and H. H. Kroencke is secretary.

Leave On Trip to Ohio

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Ready of Kansas City, former Sedalians, left Wednesday for a motor trip to Cleveland, O., where they will visit Mrs. Ready's sister, Mrs. Grace Sage Houghton, who also formerly resided in Sedalia and Mrs. Houghton's daughter, son-in-law and granddaughter. They were accompanied on the trip by Mrs. James H. Harkless Jr.

The state four years ago by 184,000. Tennessee 11 electoral votes. The Democrats are going to take composite opinion of newspapermen throughout the state. But here again the GOP is credited with the power to run up a record, if losing vote.

Police Permits

More complaints of theft of grave markers, which are provided on veterans' graves at the City Cemetery, were received. Wednesday it was reported that a marker from the grave of Henry Maness, who was killed in September of 1918 in the Battle of the Argonne, had been stolen.

The markers, which are useless for any other purpose, are bronze, with the name of the veteran stamped on the back.

The Conoco Service Station, Main and Missouri, was broken into Tuesday night. Apparently nothing was stolen. The robbery was discovered by Merchant Officer Joe Gresham.

A prowler was reported in the neighborhood of 1617 East Ninth about 11:55 p. m. Tuesday. Police made an investigation.

Police Court

The police court received $3 Wednesday morning when Miss Eleanor Luck, 1914 South Quincy, paid $5 after she had been fined $2 for improper parking. Mrs. Luck had pleaded not guilty and, after a hearing the court under the circumstances changed the charge from parking in a restricted zone to improper parking and assessed a $2 fine.

Miss Luck left a $5 bill on the judge's desk with the remark, "take out the fine and put the rest in the police fund."

Ten overtime parkers forfeited cash bonds of $1 each when they failed to appear in police court.

County Court

A wolf bounty of $30 was paid for one old wolf scalp to Elroy Cochran, Sedalia.

Magistrate Court

Vernon Burch, Sedalia, pleaded guilty to a charge of careless and imprudent driving Wednesday morning and was fined $35 and costs.

In Other Courts

Tuesday a preliminary hearing was held in Magistrate Court at Warrensburg for A. I. (Slim) Eberhardt, Holden city marshal, charged with the fatal shooting of Robert Wither, former Sedalian, on the main street of Holden Sept. 2. The charge was second degree murder and six witnesses appeared to testify for the state while Gayles R. Pine placed one witness on the stand in behalf of the defendant.

Eberhardt was held under $5,000 bond, which was given, for the October term of the Johnson County Circuit Court.

Witcher was a taxicab man at Holden.

Elliott Criticizes State Highway System

TRENTON, Mo. (AP)—Criticizing Missouri's present highway system Howard Elliott, Republican gubernatorial hopeful, has placed the blame for the state's muddy roads on its Democratic "executives and the commissions they have appointed."

In a campaign address here last night, Elliott said past road legislation followed 1921 concepts instead of following the 1945 Constitution that calls for what he termed far flung arteries throughout the state "over which would flow the life blood of our commerce."

Typhoon Lashes Wake Island

Residents say it will reach eight or 10 million dollars. At least 90 per cent of the buildings were leveled by the storm whose winds exceeded 160 miles an hour. Damage was particularly heavy in the residential areas, although by some freak of nature a house was left standing here and there.

Trans-Pacific air traffic will be disrupted for months. In the meantime, most planes will fly a longer route to the Far East, stopping at Kwajalein and Guam.

The island population of more than 700 will be evacuated with the exception of some 60 key personnel. Wake is one of three coral islets ringing a normally quiet lagoon. The others are Peale and Wilkes. Wake itself is only 4½ miles long and 2½ miles wide. It was discovered in 1796 by William Wake, commander of a British schooner, and annexed by the U. S. during the Spanish American War.

Wake, at its highest point, is only 15 feet above sea level.

Stuart Symington Denies His Aid Helped a Firm

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Without naming names, Stuart Symington has denied a charge by Sen. James P. Kem (R-Mo.) that a St. Louis manufacturing firm benefited from Symington's service in the government.

Kem made the charge last week during his campaign here for reelection. Symington, Kem's Democratic opponent, made his denial in a campaign speech here last night.

The Kansas City republican had declared that certain war contracts were awarded the Emerson Electric Manufacturing Co. while Symington, one-time head of the firm, was in government service.

In his reply Symington said "no contracts between Emerson and the government were ever handled by me, directly or indirectly, during the time I was in government service."

He described as "not true" Kem's charge that Emerson received a contract for a new electronic fire control system for an air force bomber while he was assistant secretary of war for air.

Symington said the contract has accepted by Emerson "long before I entered the government. It was while I was still president of Emerson."

Teen Town Will Open Saturday

Teen Town is to open the 1952-53 season Saturday night of this week, the first night of entertainment for the youths of the city having been designated for that evening.

Redecorating and minor repairing of the building have been completed under the direction of the senior board during the past few weeks. Members of the board met this week to decide on the opening and to express appreciation to the building committee members for the work done.

George Thompson and Gerhardt Jaeger are the sponsors for Teen Town this year and will be assisted by chaperones. Regular nights for the openings will be Friday and Saturday from 7:30 to 11 p. m.

Windsor Flower Show For Public On Friday

Windsor's Garden Club is sponsoring a flower show to be held at the Windsor Methodist Church Friday, Sept. 19. Entries will be accepted between 8 and 10:30 a. m. and the exhibit will be open, free, to the public from 1 to 7 p. m. All amateur flower growers are eligible to make entries.

Weir Home From Korea

Pfc. and Mrs. William Weir, Jersey City, N. J., will arrive in Sedalia sometime Thursday. Pvt. Weir was just returned from spending 10 months in Korea, where he was with the 72nd Tank Battalion, 2nd Infantry Division. He attended Mark Twain School and Smith-Cotton High School and enlisted in the army Oct. 23, 1949 and will receive his discharge this October.

Return to Washington

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Payne and children Arthur, John and Mary, have returned to Washington, D. C. after a visit with Mrs. Payne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Bergman, 1202 South Stewart, and her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Steele, 1510 South Vermont.

OBITUARIES

James M. McCormick Services Funeral services for James Marcellus McCormick, who died unexpectedly in his room at the Milner Hotel Monday, will be held at the McLaughlin Funeral Chapel at 2 p. m. Thursday.

Mr. McCormick, who is the son of the late Clarence Wadleigh and Lelice Herndon McCormick, was born in Sedalia Dec. 10, 1903 and lived here until the past few years, which were spent on his farm south of here. He was a member of the Fifth Street Methodist Church.

He is survived by two brothers, Braynerd, Miami, Okla. and Gutierrez, Jacksonville, Fla. Burial will be in Memorial Park Cemetery.

Lillian Breach Colwell
Lillian Breach Colwell, 42, died at the Bothwell Hospital Wednesday at 5:45 a. m.

Mrs. Colwell, who was a resident of LaMonte, was born near Dickens, Neb., on May 31, 1910, the eldest daughter of the late Charles and Louise Breach.

On Dec. 22, 1930 she was married to Logan Colwell. They made their home in North Platte, Neb., until April of 1936, when they moved to a farm northwest of LaMonte.

She was a member of the Blackwater Chapel Methodist Church. Survivors are her husband; two brothers, Ernest and Charles, both of North Platte, Neb.; four sisters, Mrs. James Johnson and Mrs. Ralph Jensen of North Platte and Mrs. Fred Zulauf and Mrs. Wayne Ostrom, both of Covad, Neb.; and ten nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the Blackwater Chapel Methodist Church with the Rev. Clifford officiating. The Rev. William Thomas of LaMonte will assist at the service.

Palbearers will be: Elwood Fisher, James Faulkner, Leroy Harrison, Delmer Fisher, Marion Hall and Earl Winston.

Music will be by Mrs. Guy Bailey and Mrs. Pearl Clevenger, who will sing "Lord's Prayer," "Benedictus" and "Lily of the Valley."

Burial will be in the LaMonte Cemetery. The body is at the Parker Funeral Home in LaMonte.

George Shipley Ellis Services

Funeral services were held at 10 a. m. Wednesday for George Shipley Ellis at the Gillespie Funeral Home with the Rev. Lee Marshall, of the Malta Bend Baptist Church, officiating, assisted by the Rev. Walter P. Arnold, East Sedalia Baptist Church.

Russell Maag, staff soloist at Gillespie, sang "The Old Rugged Cross," and "Abide With Me," accompanied by Miss Mabel DeWitt at the organ. Pallbearers were A. W. Mitchell, J. W. Stockman, Harry Wright, Richard Owsley, J. H. Weaver and E. D. Little. Burial was in the Malta Bend Cemetery.

Mr. Ellis, 72, a farmer near Sedalia for a period of 41 years before going to Malta Bend about seven months ago, died there at 9:30 a. m. Monday. He was born in Cooper County March 24, 1880, son of the late John and Ella Felter Ellis, and was married to Miss Elizabeth Mary Stockman Sept. 5, 1903.

Surviving him are his wife, of the home; a sister, Mrs. Clara Shoemaker, 1003 East Fifth; a brother, R. M. Ellis, 922 East Fifth. Two brothers are deceased.

Rev. A. M. Jackson

Funeral services for the Rev. A. M. Jackson will be held at 2 p. m. Thursday at the Jackson Memorial Free Will Baptist Church in Kansas City with the Rev. W. A. Warfield of St. Louis to officiate.

The body will be at the church from 5 p. m. Wednesday until time for the services and ministers of Kansas City will serve as pallbearers.

Burial will be in the Lincoln Cemetery in Kansas City. The Ferguson Funeral Home of Sedalia will have charge of the arrangements.

Surviving in addition to those previously named are two sisters, Mrs. Carrie Johnson of Kansas City and Mrs. Elveta Gant of Blackburn.

Richard G. "Dick" Brown, 29, died unexpectedly at 2:15 a. m. Wednesday at his home, 606 South Grand. Death was due to a heart attack, according to Dr. J. E. Lamy who was called to the home.

Mr. Brown complained of having a pain in his chest Tuesday evening, but went to the show with Mrs. Brown and their daughter. Upon returning home he retired, but was breathing hard and got up and walked around his apartment, smoked a cigarette and returned to bed.

About 2 o'clock Mrs. Brown was awakened by a heavy breathing of her husband. She called Dr. Lamy and they called Kenneth "Duke" Stivers, who resides across the hall. When they went to the bedside of Mr. Brown he already had died.

Mr. Brown was a partner in the Spabro miniature golf course on South Highway 65 with Robert E. Sparks. He came to Sedalia about two years ago as a salesman for Proctor and Gamble, and traveled out of Sedalia.

Mr. Brown was born May 16, at Williston, S. D., and was married June 30, 1946 to Miss Myfanwy Jones, at Topeka, Kan. His mother, Mrs. Doris Brown, died six months ago in Chicago.

Surviving is his widow and one child, Katherine Ann, age 4. Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Jones, Topeka, arrived in Sedalia early Wednesday to be with their daughter.

Mr. Brown was a member of the Broadway Presbyterian Church. The body was taken to the Gillespie Funeral Home. Funeral arrangements have not been made pending word from relatives.

Approximately 65,000 gallons of oil were used today at nearby Colinsburg, killing at least three girls and injuring 46 other pupils, 15 of them seriously.

Due to the extreme confusion, officials had difficulty immediately in determining the exact number of the dead.

The office of Joseph R. Check, Westmoreland County Coroner at Greensburg, said it has definite reports of three dead, they are: James Everett, 17, a senior, of Collinsburg; Norma Bergman, 15, of West Newton; Leola Bradley, 14, of Collinsburg.

Stevenson Will Invade Taft's State

By RELMAN MORIN
SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Gov. Adlai Stevenson will invade Ohio, Sen. Robert A. Taft's home state, later this month and schedules indicate he will make one major speech in Columbus Oct. 3—the same day Taft has arranged to talk in Columbus.

The Democratic presidential candidate starts a swing through the eastern seaboard states tomorrow. His Ohio invasion will include speeches in at least two major cities, his campaign manager announced today.

The Oct. 3 speaking date in Columbus was reported by Walter F. Heer, Jr., Franklin County Democratic Chairman in Ohio. He said Stevenson will make a major address over a nation-wide TV network at 8 p. m. (CST), after appearing earlier in the day at Cincinnati and Dayton.

Stevenson claims Taft has "taken over" Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's presidential campaign.

To Tour 5 More States
Wyatt today announced Stevenson's itinerary for the campaign drive into Connecticut, Massachusetts, New York, Virginia and Maryland. The governor starts his tour in Bridgeport, Conn., tomorrow morning.

Senator William Fulbright, of Arkansas, who arrived in Springfield late last night, conferred with Stevenson in the executive mansion today. Fulbright is a house guest there.

Fulbright said he is supporting Stevenson in the presidential campaign.

But he told newsmen he wants to hear the governor's idea about some of the decisive issues of the campaign. Namely civil rights legislation, the Taft-Hartley act, and Stevenson's position on Senate Rule 22, which requires a two-thirds majority vote to shut off debate.

Agrees "In Principle"
The Arkansas senator said he agrees, in principle, with Stevenson's proposal to repeal the Taft-Hartley Act.

But he disagrees, he said with the governor's view on Rule 22 to make a simple majority vote necessary to stop a filibuster. "I'm not for majority cloture in the Senate," Fulbright said.

On civil rights legislation, also, Fulbright said he is in general agreement with Stevenson—but he indicated that he is opposed to setting up a standard of fair employment practices in the individual states, with the provision that the federal government may step in to enforce them if the states do not.

"I'm not sure what his specific ideas are on that," Fulbright said. "I heard his statement on television, and it sounded sensible. But I want to talk with him about it."

Fulbright and the governor are expected also to discuss the political picture in the southern states, as well as the reported corruption in Washington.

Sees Key Democrats
Stevenson held conferences yesterday with Democratic candidates in two key states.

Thomas Fairchild, Democratic candidate opposing Republican Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, of Wisconsin, told reporters he has a "very good fighting chance" to unseat McCarthy in November. He said he has asked Stevenson to campaign in Wisconsin, but evaded questions about Stevenson's plans.

THE STORY: Roy Mason, biographer of Governor Warburton, Vice Presidential candidate, has learned that a paragraph he wrote about the governor's childhood school teacher, Hattie Perkins, has offended the old lady and that she has announced she would not attend the rally celebrating Warburton's return to his home town during his campaign. John Mills, friend of the governor, has taken Mason to meet the teacher. Mason has just met Ginny Perkins, a niece.

IX
GINNY returned within a minute, spreading her hands gracefully and smiling at me. "I'm so sorry," she said. "Aunt Hattie says no, very emphatically no." I frowned. "If I could only explain to her..." The girl shook her head, and her blond hair moved along her shoulders. "Aunt Hattie said, Mr. Mason, that she did not wish to see you, or any other emissary from Willis G. Warburton, now or at any time." "If she said that, Mr. Mason, Miss Hattie means it," John Mills said, and shrugged. "All right if I walk around and say hello to her, Ginny?" Ginny smiled. "I'm sure she'd never tell the door to you, John. But I wouldn't mention Mr. Warburton, if I were you." I dropped onto a bench under the trellis of roses and gazed unhappily at my feet. I heard John's step on the gravel as he went away, and then Virginia Perkins said softly, "It's too bad, Mr. Mason, but Aunt Hattie has a real mad on Willis G. Warburton. I don't think there's anything you can do." "I'd like to find out why," I said. "I'm afraid it's the book you wrote." "Did you read it? I never wrote a harmless little paragraph," said Ginny. "So he thinks Miss Hattie is dead, does he? So he thinks he can say what he pleases, and does he? Well, he'll find out." "But it's not the Governor's fault," I protested. "I wrote the

Odds and Ends
By News Staff

It was Saturday morning and mother was not at home, but father was and, with the help of the older girl, was going to do the washing, while the younger girl, 11 years old, washed the breakfast dishes.

The little girl turned on the water and let it run in the large double sink — then while it was filling up she went in the living room and started to read a story. The story was so interesting that she completely forgot about the dishes — and — the water.

In about a half hour father and the older girl had the washing done and out and father came in to the kitchen — it looked like the Lake of the Ozarks to father. The entire kitchen was flooded with water. Water had gone down into the cabinets, soaked everything including the washing powder and father was boiling over. He had never whipped one of the children but he stopped at the kitchen door and counted ten before he could go into the living room and get the young lady to show her the mess in the kitchen.

The little girl was just about as whipped as if he had whipped her — but she came through with an answer in the process of cleaning up after the flood. "Well," she said, "One thing we won't have to scrub the kitchen again for a long, long time."

Father still hadn't cooled off when mother came home but he did soon afterward. Mother listened to the story then reminded him of something that happened a few days before. "You remember," she said, "The day you left the stopper in the lavatory and forgot to turn the faucet off — if I hadn't gone in just when I did the same thing would have happened in the bathroom, the basin was full and spilling all over the floor."

Sure, it could happen to anybody — and was papa ever glad that he stopped and counted ten when he was considering giving his young daughter a whipping.

Mothers have such doggone good memories.—H. L.

For The Ladies:
A Diet That Really Works

We went out visiting the other night and the ladies were talking away about weight-reducing diets. One of them had a special "15-day Hollywood diet" guaranteed to slim her down fifteen pounds' worth. Another was living on bananas and skim milk!

I might have known the missus would get the bug, too, and sure enough the other day she asks me, "Joe, what kind of a diet do you think I ought to go on?"

Ike Was Under Pressure At Taft Breakfast Meeting

By Drew Pearson
(Copyright, 1952, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

WASHINGTON—To understand the inside on the Taft-Eisenhower breakfast last week you have to know something about the pressures brought on both men by friends and advisers.

Among Eisenhower's friends, some considered the statement issued by Taft after the breakfast to be a surrender by the victor at Chicago to the man he defeated at Chicago. That was why Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon immediately scratched his name off the Ike list.

Some of these friends feel that never before has a candidate been so humiliated in public as when Taft told newsmen he had written the "joint" 7-page statement in Cincinnati before he came to the breakfast. At least, they say, he might have preserved the fiction that the two had worked it out together.

Just a few weeks ago, they point out, Eisenhower walked out of the Chicago convention the biggest man in America, considered a sure bet to win. Today, two months after Chicago, he has to accept policy dictated by the man he defeated.

However, others of Ike's friends point to the terrific pressures he was under. In Massachusetts, he knew that Taft supporters were so bitter that Senator Lodge had not dared feature in his campaign literature the fact that he was once Ike's campaign manager. In Indiana, state GOP chairman Cale Holder, strong Taft supporter, reported that many of his cohorts were dragging their feet.

In Cleveland, Ike personally found how tough it was to dent the Taft forces when he spoke at a private dinner to try to pry open Taft pocketbooks. The response was not overwhelming. Taft money-men say that Wall Street nominated Eisenhower, so Wall Street can now finance him. And what made things worse was when Congressman George Bender, a Taft supporter, was barred from the dining room by State Chairman Ray Bliss. Seeing mad, Bender walked out.

Speakers' Sabotage
In Washington, two Taft men—Sen. Karl Mundt of South Dakota and Congressman Charles Halleck of Indiana—are in charge of the speakers' bureau. And when Ike-supporter Sen. Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts offered to make some speeches in his home state, Massachusetts, nothing happened. For four weeks he wasn't called on. Finally, when he complained at the inactivity, Taftite Halleck assigned Saltonstall to speak in Indiana, Illinois and Ohio—three bedrock Taft states where a man of Saltonstall's political background would be valueless.

Again, when Ikeman Sen. George Aiken of Vermont volunteered to speak, he wasn't given a single engagement in New England where he would be most effective. Thus, with the GOP split even worse than generally suspected, Eisenhower yielded to midroad advisers who said he had to heal the Taft breach.

Two of these advisers — Sens. Frank Carlson of Kansas and Alex

Smith of New Jersey — arranged the breakfast preliminaries. Smith, vacationing in Canada, spent part of a month urging Taft to get wholeheartedly into the campaign and argued that Taft and Ike would be an unbeatable team: Ike or foreign policy, Taft on domestic issues.

Taft, at first balked, said his wing of the party was opposed to Dewey control, would be flatly opposed to having Dewey in the cabinet.

Taft's 7-Page Statement
When Taft got to New York the night before the breakfast, he handed Senator Carlson a copy of the now-famous "joint" statement. In a corner was written in green ink: "For Senator Carlson. To be given only to General Eisenhower."

However, Carlson did not give the statement to Eisenhower the night before, as Taft intended. He kept it — presumably because he feared Ike might get sore, and that it was better for the two men to get acquainted personally before haggling over legal and political phraseology.

Next morning, at breakfast, Taft broke the ice with: "I want to congratulate you for taking off the gloves."

He added that it would be fatal to try to "coast through this campaign" as Dewey did in 1948. Then, as the conversation progressed, Taft diagnosed the "heartbeat" of the Republican party as "west of the Alleghenies," and predicted: "If that section is properly handled, we will win in November."

Regarding the eastern states, Taft said that, if Ike continued a fighting campaign, hitting the issues and naming names, "You won't do any worse than Dewey did in 1948, with the possible exception of New York which will be very tough to carry."

By naming names, Taft indicated that he had in mind President Truman and Secretary of State Acheson.

Taft said he thought Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Michigan, Iowa would be safely in Republican hands, and that prospects also looked good in the Far West, including California. Where, he said, "Senator Nixon will be of tremendous help."

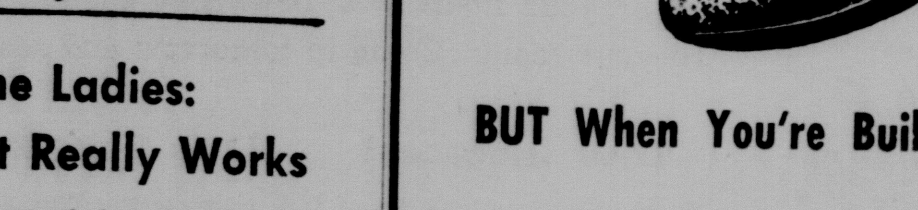

Taft thought there might be a good chance for Ike to pick up two southern states — Texas and Louisiana — but was not as optimistic as Ike regarding the others.

European Disagreement
Eisenhower was a little surprised when Taft pulled the seven-page statement from his pocket. Taft had assumed Ike had already read it. However, they agreed on most of it, Eisenhower penciling in some changes.

Their only real disagreement was regarding aid to Europe and the NATO armies, which the general considered important to block the spread of Communism.

"On that subject," said Taft with

Greatest Explosion In History May Come In Fall on Eniwetok

CAPEL HILL, N. C. (AP)—The greatest explosion in history may take place at the Eniwetok atomic weapons tests this fall, according to Rep. Carl Durham (D-NC), acting chairman of the Joint Congressional Atomic Energy Committee.

In an interview with the Durham Herald yesterday, Durham declined to say whether the tests would involve the first hydrogen bomb.

He said that if the tests are successful, "there'll be an explosion greater than has ever been set off before. It will open up the gravest era in the history of the world."

Demos Asking $5 Each From Grass Rooters for Fund

NEW YORK. (AP)—The Democratic Party asked its grass roots supporters today to chip in at least $5 apiece toward the 1952 campaign.

The party's finance chairman, Eardley Rumf, said it was the first time a major party ever dug that deeply into the ranks of its supporters for financial aid. The sales campaign will run from Oct. 8-15.

The Democratic finance committee hopes not only to raise funds but also to give the small contributors a direct financial stake in a November victory. Thus, it figures, he'll work harder for the party.

Usually, both major parties depend for funds on rich contributors or active party workers.

As the finance committee outlines the plan, individual certificates will be sold at $5 each from books of five. The books will come in packages of 10 — worth $250 in all — party captains will distribute them to 10-man teams for sale.

Forty per cent of its income will go to committees in the states where the books are sold. The national committee can take what it needs up to 55 per cent. The remaining five per cent covers advertising expenses.

The committee said the plan grew out of Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson's desire to see campaign finances shouldered by all Democratic voters.

The committee saw the whole plan as "a pattern for all presidential campaigns in the future."

KU Will Try To Take Big 7 Grid Crown

LAWRENCE, Kas. (P)—There's no secret in these parts about the University of Kansas Jayhawks' intentions of challenging Oklahoma and Colorado for the Big Seven Conference football laurels.

And Kansas fans, as well as the coaching staff, will get a good line on their team's chances of league and sectional honors when the Jayhawks open with Texas Christian University at Lawrence Saturday.

Kansas started well last season by out-passing T. C. U., 27-13, but wilted in the big seven game before champion Oklahoma and Colorado, the runner-up.

Coach Jules V. Sikes says he believes his Kansasans have good chances in both the battle with T. C. U. and the campaign for Big Seven honors.

"We've got a chance of beating T. C. U. again and we'll be in the scrap for the Big Seven title," Sikes said. "Of course T. C. U. will be stronger than last year and so will the Big Seven."

Kansas has a field-full of capable backs, even counting the loss last week of Bud Laughlin, all-conference back to the army. Charlie Hoag, Bob Brandberry and Galt Fliss, all holdovers, are fitting in an offensive unit nicely with quarterback Gil Reich, ex-West Point star.

The Kansas passing attack propelled by Reich and Jerry Robertson again should be one of the tops in the Midlands.

Oliver Spencer, a second team All America offensive tackle last year, heads a line that appears more than adequate except for the ends and center where experience is lacking. And the manpower is plentiful at these spots.

Kansas will start the season with 30 lettermen, ranging from two to five at each position.

Offensive center, Sikes says, is the weakest spot at the moment. He has two lettermen there in Warren Woody and Merlin Gish, a converted back, however, and the situation should improve after a few games.

"We had one of our best days last year in beating T. C. U.," Sikes said. "We've got to have another one to repeat over the Southwest Conference champions. If we can just make it a nip-and-tuck game I'll be happy."

The game is the first of eleven to be televised nationally this season on the National Collegiate Athletic Association TV program.

Rocky Was Raw and Crude In '48 When Started In Ring

By GAYLE TALBOT

GROSSINGER, N. Y. (P)—Charlie Goldman, the gnome-like little man who trains Rocky Marciano, was holding forth on his favorite topic while the heavyweight challenger took a sound afternoon snooze in the room above.

"He not only was crude when I first saw him in 1948," Goldman recalled, "but he also was the rawest fighter I ever had laid my eyes on. He was old to be starting out on a professional career, too—nearly 24 he was at that time."

"But I saw that Rocky could punch and that he had a fine body for taking punches. He was an awful slow puncher, though, and about all he had was a big, looping right. He's much faster now and he punches a lot shorter, but he still throws the looper now and then and it's all right with me. I told him as long as he gets results, that's all I want."

"Well, what Rocky lacked in experience he made up in being cooperative. He's the most cooperative fighter I ever trained or ever heard about. He wanted to learn and he wanted to work. He had never had more than $20 in his pocket at one time in his life. Any time he had more than that, it went to help support his family."

"Rocky must be something like this golfer Ben Hogan. I read how Hogan will shoot a fine score and then go out and practice for a couple of hours. Rocky's exactly that way. If I should get him on the phone the morning after he wins the championship from Joe Walcott and tell him something's on fire and I want him to start training again, he would just say, 'Okay, Charlie,' and he would be there."

Dick Groat Makes Leap From College

NEW YORK (P)—Dick Groat of the Pirates has made a successful leap from the college campus to the big leagues.

The former Duke University shortstop, who joined Pittsburgh in mid-June, already has reached the century mark in base hits. Groat collected three hits last night to bring his total to 102 and boosted his average to .283 as the Pirates bowed to Brooklyn, 4-2.

Krsnich Keeps ChiSox Going With Hitting

CHICAGO (P)—Rocky Krsnich, who until a week ago was being used as a late-inning defensive replacement, is keeping the White Sox in third place with his sensational clutch hitting.

Rocky's safeties have been the deciding factor in two of Chicago's last four games. His six collected seven hits in his last 15 trips, including two doubles and a homer in Tuesday's two-night double-header against Philadelphia.

Leo Gambled And Lost When Used Rookie

By JOE REICHLER

AP Sports Writer

"I just gambled and lost, that's all."

The quotes are those of Manager Leo Durocher, who yesterday apostrophized the experts, fans, opposition and his own players by pinning the New York Giants' pennant hopes on the shoulders of a pitching neophyte who had never hurled an inning of big league ball.

The youngster is 25-year-old Jack Harshman, a former first-base flop, who turned to minor league pitching last spring and was brought up to the Giants Monday after a 7-7 record with Minneapolis of the American Association.

Harshman walked to the mound under his own power but collapsed quickly and the Chicago Cubs, behind Warren Hacker, breezed to a 9-0 victory. The defeat was the more bitter because it was followed by Brooklyn's 4-2 triumph over Pittsburgh that boosted the Dodgers' National League lead over the Giants to four games with only 10 to go for each side.

"I had to go with Harshman. Who else did I have? The others are all overworked," Durocher said.

Cleveland remained stationary in its pursuit of the American League-leading New York Yankees despite their 10-inning 4-3 triumph over the Washington Senators. The Yankees maintained their 2 1/2-game margin with 10 to go when rookie southpaw Bill Miller twirled a three hit 7-0 shutout over the Detroit Tigers. Joe Collins and Hank Bauer homered to hand Art Houtteman his 19th loss. It was the Yankees' fifth straight win.

The St. Louis Cardinals advanced to within 3 1/2 games of the second-place Giants, sweeping a

Alexander Leads Way In Mo. Open Golf

ST. LOUIS (P)—Short, slim Reece Alexander was the big man today as the $1,500 Missouri Open Golf Tournament entered the third round of play.

The 5-foot-4, 110-pound St. Louis professional turned in a sharp 67 yesterday, two over the Lakeside Course record and five strokes under par. His 36-hole card showed a 73-67—140 to give him the lead at the halfway point.

One stroke back were Gene Webb, another local pro who holds the course record, Ed Furgol, also of St. Louis, and Leonard Dodson, unattached Kansas City pro.

Leading amateurs were Frank Maloney and Ed Ervasti, both of St. Louis, with 147.

Tigers Prepare For Kemper, A Team of Unknown Strength

Smith-Cotton's Tigers are preparing to take on an "unknown" foe in the Kemper Yellow Jackets, Friday night on the Liberty Park gridiron. It has been a tough two-day practice for the local gridsters due to the heat and a few minor injuries suffered in the game with the Marshall Owls last Friday, when Sedalia scored a 24-6 victory.

Coach Ralph "Stub" Dow took his Tigers to the practice gridiron Monday and put them through the traces for the longest session of practice held this season. He worked them hard to iron out the "week-end kinks" and shape them up for the Kemper tilt.

Tuesday the boys spent considerable time in scrimmage and working over the weak spots found in the game with the Owls. Some passing was held, while practice also included single-wing formation plays.

Miller Joins Air Forces
Dow suffered a setback Tuesday with the announcement of his second string quarterback that he had enlisted in the United States Air Force, Carl Miller, who played backfield, substituting for "Buck" Bennett at the calling position, enlisted Monday, took his examination Tuesday, and expects to leave next Monday.

Miller gave promise of making a good backfield man for the Tigers, and he will be missed. Miller was a Junior.

Tigers Prepare For Kemper, A Team of Unknown Strength

The Tigers are suffering from colds resulting from the hard play last week-end, bruises, and were fatigued from their first game. Monday's session also drained some pep from them, but Dow anticipates a "pep-up."

Kemper Keeps Quiet
Kemper has given out little information regarding the '32 edition of the Yellow Jackets other than five lettermen from 1931 are back in uniform. These men upon whom Coach L. Richard Vigil is depending are David Adanson, James Clifton, Jerald Gentry, Matt Maxwell and Harley Moses.

Dow recalls the 24-0 trimming given the Jackets in 1931, but has doubts of having such a scoring spree this Friday night. The fact Kemper has some experience-

Tuesday the boys spent considerable time in scrimmage and working over the weak spots found in the game with the Owls. Some passing was held, while practice also included single-wing formation plays.

Success Secrets Sought
NEW YORK (AP)—A group to study the secrets of business success has been formed by the presidents of 24 corporations from various parts of the country.
Known as the Committee to Encourage Enterprise, it will survey ways to encourage risk capital to give small corporations more support. John M. Fox, president of the Minute Maid Corp., is chairman.
Fox said his group wants to combat the steady decline in formation of new corporations since 1946.

There are more than 50 mineral springs, with no two having the same analysis, around the Soda Springs area of southeastern Idaho.

TV to Go Underwater
NEW YORK (AP)—Life underwater will be recorded by the TV camera, the British Information Service reports.

The research ship, Calanus, belonging to the Scottish Marine Biological Association, is being equipped with a built-in television camera powerful enough to distinguish the characteristic zoological features of a codfish at 16 feet in cloudy water.

The camera will also look at experimental fish breeding grounds and the workings of crabs and ephrausid shrimp.

Ask McCarthy To Campaign For General

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's managers plan to call on Sen. Joseph McCarthy of Wisconsin to campaign actively for the Republican ticket on the Communist-in-government issue.

Sen. Frank Carlson of Kansas, a top Eisenhower adviser, told this reporter an invitation to McCarthy to campaign outside his home state is "in the works."

"I fully expect that Sen. McCarthy will be speaking vigorously for the ticket as soon as he recovers fully from his recent operation," Carlson said.

McCarthy, limited by physical disability in campaigning for re-nomination in Wisconsin, won a smashing victory there.

Apparently this convinced even the most sanguine of Eisenhower's advisers that the Wisconsin senator would be a valuable addition to their team. The feeling among them was that McCarthy could lash out at the Truman administration in blunt terms that the GOP presidential nominee has hesitated to use.

Thus, McCarthy, who has said he would support Eisenhower even if the latter disowned him politically, might be teamed with Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio in a double-barreled answer to the "give 'em hell" campaign that President Truman is expected to launch with a Western trip starting early in October.

A speaking schedule which will take Taft into 19 states was announced by Sen. Karl Mundt of South Dakota, co-chairman of the Republican Speakers Bureau, and Sen. Everett Dirksen of Illinois, chairman of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee.

The schedule calls for an evening speech by Taft Oct. 8 at the "Pancake Day" celebration in Shenandoah, Iowa, after Truman speaks from the same platform earlier in the day.

McCarthy and Truman may never come to such close quarters, but decision to use the Wisconsin senator extensively in the campaign apparently was contingent

Tavern Owner Held For Tax Evasion

KANSAS CITY (AP)—David Mitchell, Kansas City tavern owner, was convicted by a federal court jury yesterday of evading $94,732 in income taxes.

The government contended that Mitchell paid $48,233 in tax from 1945 through 1948 while he actually owed $142,995. He was acquitted of tax evasion for 1949 and 1950.

Mitchell will be sentenced later, only on McCarthy's acceptance and his physical condition.

This decision seemed to have been taken by the Eisenhower advisers in the face of the general's evident distaste for McCarthy's criticism of Gen. George C. Marshall. In a Senate speech, McCarthy said Marshall, who helped elevate Eisenhower to five-star rank, had participated in a conspiracy against the country.

Eisenhower has not yet hit the Communist issue hard in campaign speeches. But he has mentioned it several times in apparent preparation for a later major address on the subject.

Englishmen Defend First Queen 'Bess'

LONDON (AP)—Englishmen—who like to think they are on the threshold of a new Elizabethan age—rushed into print by the scores today to defend the first Queen Bess from a charge that she was "the most infamous and miserable woman in history."

The famous 16th-century queen was so described last Sunday by Msgr. Cyril Cowderoy, Roman Catholic Bishop of Southwark.

"Drunk with the blood of martyrs, the first Elizabeth dishonored the faith of the church of her fathers," Bishop Cowderoy declared. "There is no comparison with the gracious and lovely lady who now occupies the throne beyond the fact of their name."

This reference to Protestant Elizabeth's treatment of Catholics stung letter writers to London newspapers to point out that the first Elizabeth's elder and Catholic sister, "Bloody" Queen Mary, was equally hard on Protestants.

Defenders of Elizabeth, variously described her as "one of the world's most gracious rulers," "that great lady who made the Elizabethan Age the most brilliant in our history" and "one of the greatest of all English monarchs."

Call Off Rally And A Supper

A Democratic rally and potluck supper, to have been held at the Armory in Warrensburg Sept. 24, has been cancelled, Harry L. Cameron of Holden, Johnson County Democratic chairman, announced today. Cancellation was made because of the polio situation.

Speakers at this time were to be Stuart Symington, candidate for United States Senate, and Phil M. Donnelly, candidate for governor.

The Democratic Women's Club was sponsoring the meeting and supper.

Attend Funeral of Mrs. Dillen

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Dillen, Kansas City, and Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hine, Cole Camp, attended the funeral of Mrs. Mary Jane Dillen here Saturday at the Gillespie Funeral Home. She was the mother of E. J. Gross, aunt of Mrs. John Hentz, St. Louis. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Dillen, Kansas City also attended the services.

Eight Persons, Six Of One Family, Die In Car-Train Crash

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Eight persons—six of them from one family—were killed when a diesel-powered freight train struck an old-model auto at a railroad crossing near here last night.

All eight were passengers in the car. No one on the train was injured.

Justice of the Peace Robin Forrester tentatively identified the victims as Thomas A. Fort, 32, Brady, Tex.; his wife Ruby, about 28; their children Brenda, 9; Shirley, 21; twin boys Thomas and Bobby, 3; and Jack E. Miller, a soldier stationed at Ft. Hood, and Ben H. Smith, 14, Granger, Tex.

Congress has passed a deficiency appropriation amounting to only one cent on several occasions.

YOU MAY HAVE PIN-WORMS
AND NOT KNOW IT!

Fidgeting, nose-picking and a tormenting rectal itch are often tell-tale signs of Pin-Worms... ugly parasites that medical experts say infect one out of every three persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of Pin-Worms, these pests must not only be killed, but killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do... and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with this dangerous, highly contagious condition. At the first sign of Pin-Worms, ask your druggist for genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge... the small, easy-to-take tablets perfected by famous Dr. D. Jayne & Son, specialists in worm remedies for over 100 years.
